Karen Gray has been encouraging and equipping women for ministry for over 30 years. Karen's heart is to encourage, guide and empower women to walk in courage and confidence as they discover and develop their identity as a child of God. Karen models a servant's heart and is willing to help anyone. She challenges and motivates women to dream and to fulfill their God-given destiny. Karen Gray currently serves as the Women's Ministries Director for the Alpha Center, since. As she serves in this role, her heart is to bring a message of hope to women of all generations and cultures. Karen and her husband Mike have been in ministry for 39 years. During the last seven years, Karen has supported her husband as he leads the Alpha Conference as Conference Bishop.
